DP Consteel is a PEB and steel structure company engaged in the design, engineering, manufacturing, supply, and erection of pre-engineered buildings for industrial and commercial applications. The company manufactures customised steel structures for factories, warehouses, industrial sheds, manufacturing plants, logistics centres, workshops, storage facilities, cold storage buildings, and other construction requirements. Its solutions are developed according to building dimensions, structural loads, site conditions, operational requirements, clear span, building height, roofing, wall cladding, insulation, ventilation, openings, and future expansion needs. DP Consteel operates a fully equipped manufacturing facility at Samrudhi Industrial Park 3, supported by modern machinery and engineering capabilities for fabricating PEB structural components. The company serves projects in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, and other locations across India, covering the complete process from engineering and fabrication to supply and site erection.
