At MilanPlacement, we understand that every household and workplace has unique requirements. Our mission is to connect families and businesses with trustworthy, skilled professionals who can provide tailored support in various aspects of daily life. Whether you need a dependable home maid, compassionate patient care, attentive baby care, efficient office staff, or expert cooks, we are here to assist you.

Home Maid Services

Our home maids are thoroughly vetted and trained to ensure your living space is clean, organized, and welcoming. We offer flexible schedules to accommodate your needs, whether you require daily, weekly, or occasional cleaning. Our maids are proficient in various household tasks, allowing you to focus on what matters most.

Patient Care

Compassionate and qualified caregivers are at the heart of our patient care services. We provide professional support for elderly individuals, those recovering from surgery, or anyone requiring assistance with daily activities. Our caregivers are trained in first aid and are dedicated to ensuring your loved ones receive the kindness and attention they deserve.

Baby Care

As parents, we understand the importance of finding someone trustworthy to care for your little ones. Our baby care professionals are experienced in nurturing and engaging with children, ensuring their safety and well-being. We offer flexible options to support parents, whether part-time or full-time, allowing you to balance your responsibilities with peace of mind.

Office Staff

Streamline your business operations with our skilled office staffing solutions. We provide qualified administrative personnel who can help with a range of functions, from reception to data entry. Our goal is to enhance your workplace efficiency and ensure your team is supported.

Cooks and Servants

Delight your family or guests with our experienced cooks who can prepare a variety of cuisines tailored to your preferences. Additionally, our trained servants can assist with household management, allowing you to enjoy a well-run home without the stress.
