Raajaram offers Dhotis in Kerala. Dhotis, also referred to as mundus in Kerala, are a crucial part of the clothing tradition of Kerala. The simple designs, comfortable cotton material, and attractive borders make them ideal for daily use as well as for festivals, weddings, and other occasions.

Kerala dhotis come in different varieties, ranging from the simple white cotton mundus to the more elaborate Kasavu dhotis with traditional borders. Centers famous for handloom work, such as Kuthampully, Balaramapuram, and Chendamangalam, are also popular for their dhotis.

Raajaram offers a wide collection of dhotis in Kerala, bringing together traditional style, comfortable fabrics and the rich textile heritage of Kuthampully. From classic white and cream dhotis to premium styles for weddings, festivals and special occasions, Raajaram provides traditional menswear designed for different occasions.
