Runwynd was born out of a shared passion for running and creativity. Founded by Ganesh Perumal, a dedicated marathoner, and Dolly, an artist with a keen eye for design, the brand seeks to empower runners to express their love for the sport. Recognizing a significant gap in lifestyle products tailored for marathoners, Runwynd was conceived as a solution. The brand's mission is to transform the marathon experience, allowing runners to show their dedication and milestones in a stylish and personal way and bringing more fun to runs. Runwynd is dedicated to enhancing the overall running experience by offering products that resonate with the passion and dedication of marathoners. The brand envisions a community where runners can proudly display their achievements and express their journey through unique lifestyle products. As it continues to innovate and expand its offerings, Runwynd remains committed to inspiring runners to celebrate their milestones and foster a sense of communal belonging.
